

The Schlelein Family

Missionaries to the Tsongas of southern Africa

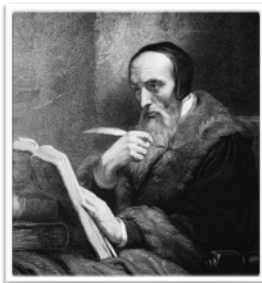

SEPTEMBER 2012 | LIMPOPO, SOUTH AFRICA

After six years, we'll be leaving Sunday, September 30 for our first furlough. We'll be in the US for four months and look forward to seeing our family, friends, and supporting churches.

10,000

The number of miles we'll be traveling from Mbhokota, S. Africa to Milwaukee, WI.

Calvin Lubeya

The name of our newest church member who was baptized last week.

MEYERS

The friends and invaluable teammates we'll be leaving behind. They live in a village 4 miles away and Seth will be aiding our church in a number of ways.

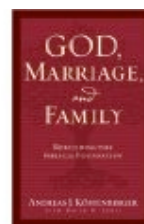

22

The age of our church's only deacon, in charge of some of the duties while we're away.

VUSWA

The staple food of the Shangaan and much of Africa. Think thick mashed potatoes. It's often eaten two to three times per day.

GOD, MARRIAGE & FAMILY

The book I'll be reading on the plane.

$5.70

Gas prices per gallon
